NORTH STARS' OUTLOOK 1977-78

Higher and Higher

The North Stars moved higher in the National Hockey League last season. Their plans and hopes call for them to move even higher this season of 1977-78.

It's not an easy act to follow. Minnesota moved from the lower depths of the league to second place in the Smythe Division — only the second time it has ever finished that high — and made the post-season playoffs for the first time in four seasons. But General Manager Jack Gordon, Coach Ted Harris and Assistant Andre Beaulieu feel the ammunition is there for the North Stars to eclipse their 1976-77 performance.

It's there in the person of center Tim Young, who scored 95 points last season, most ever by a North Star. And in the person of center Roland Eriksson, the splendid Swede whose 69 points were the most scored by an NHL rookie last year. Also in the persons of Eriksson, center Glen Sharpley, left winger Steve Jensen and right winger Alex Pirus, who gave the North Stars the first four first-year players on one team to ever score 20 or more goals. Meanwhile, three other players also scored 20 or more goals to give Minnesota seven in that department, equalling the best in the club's history.

Minnesota played eight rookies last year, most of any team in the league. Chances are that there won't be that many new faces among the boys of this winter. But defenseman Brad Maxwell, a blue chipper from New Westminster, was the club's first choice in the Amateur Draft and has the look of a winner. Two new arrivals from Sweden, forwards Per-Olov Brasar and Kent-Erik Andersson, have impressive credentials from Sweden's National team and that country's top-flight Division I. Right winger Ron Zanussi scored 53 goals for Fort Wayne to win rookie of the year honors in the International League.

The blend of stars from last season, outstanding newcomers and other capable returnees will, Gordon, Harris and Beaulieu hope, allow the North Stars to advance at least as far as they did last winter.

That means 17 more points in the standings and a giant step ahead for the Minnesota organization.

GORDON
RITZ
President

Gordy Ritz shrugs off the match-up of events, but it is a fact that his first year as president of the North Stars coincided with the team's return to the Stanley Cup playoffs. Ritz completed his first year this past June and looks back on it as "a step toward what we plan to accomplish." Ritz, 51, brought a rich and diverse background in hockey and in business to his position with the North Stars. He was one of the founders of this franchise, but became involved with the sport long before the team took the ice in 1967. Born in Montreal, he moved to the Twin Cities in 1937 and played four years at Blake School where he captained the team in 1944. At Yale University he also played four years and served as captain in his senior season. Ritz was a partner with North Stars' directors Walter Bush, Jr., and Robert McNulty in operation of the Minneapolis Bruins of the Central League. Then, when the North Stars were born, he became the team's first member of the Board of Governors. He is chairman of the executive committee of NHL Services and chairman of the league's Broadcast Policy Committee. The 1949 economics graduate from Yale — he has a master's degree in business administration from Harvard — also has been active in the world of business, primarily in the field of communications. He has been connected with Time Magazine and Sports Illustrated and has owned and managed several radio and television stations. Active in community affairs, Ritz and his wife, Joyce, make their home in Orono. They are the parents of five children.

JACK
GORDON
General Manager

If you were to call last season the most satisfying of Jack Gordon's long career in professional hockey, the 49-year-old executive might find it hard to argue. There have been other years of distinction, no question, but last year's rags to riches performance came close to topping them all. It was the fourth playoff showing by the North Stars since Gordon arrived here to coach the team in 1970. He coached the North Stars to three Stanley Cup appearances, then added the fourth as a general manager last year. Gordon left his native Winnipeg back in the '40s to pursue a career in hockey. Most of that career, 11 years of it, was spent in Cleveland where he played, coached and managed for the American League team. Gordon played for New Haven and Cincinnati in the AHL and played a total of 36 NHL games, each of them for the New York Rangers. He also worked four seasons as assistant general manager of the Rangers. Gordon coached the North Stars for three full seasons and portions of two others. He was appointed general manager-coach in 1974, but now devotes his time exclusively to the general manager's role. He also is active at the league level where he serves on several general managers' committees. Gordon enjoys playing golf during the off-season. He and his wife, Joyce, make their home in Edina. They are the parents of a son and a daughter.

TED
HARRIS
Coach

It perhaps is no accident that the last time the North Stars made the Stanley Cup playoffs before last year was the last full season that Ted Harris played for the Minnesota club. The 15-year professional spent four of those 15 years in Minnesota and in all three full seasons (he only played 12 games in the fourth) he captained the North Stars to the playoffs. Four years later he coached the team to its first berth since he left. But the playoffs are nothing new to the tall, 41-year-old man from Winnipeg. He has been on five teams that won the Stanley Cup, four at Montreal and one at Philadelphia. Harris broke into professional hockey the hard way, by the route of a long apprenticeship in the minor leagues. He spent six seasons in places like Springfield, Mass., Victoria, B.C. and Cleveland before he emerged as one of the heroes of Montreal's defense during some of the Canadiens' finest seasons. Dealt to Minnesota in 1970, Harris was equally effective with the North Stars. His career here coincided with the lowest goals-against averages in the history of the club. After ending his playing career with a Stanley Cup championship at Philadelphia, Harris was named coach of the North Stars in June of 1975. He enjoys the rural life and he and his wife, Maureen, have a farm home near Lakeville. They are the parents of a boy and a girl.

ANDRE
BEAULIEU (BOWL-you)

Andre Beaulieu has been Coach Ted Harris' extra set of eyes and ears during each and every North Stars' game, a source of counsel off the ice and a strong right arm during practice sessions. Harris was high in his praise of Beaulieu's assistance in the wake of the 35-year-old French-Canadian's second season on the Minnesota staff. The man his friends call the Cat is, of course, no stranger to coaching. He finished eight seasons of high school and junior coaching in Minnesota with a combined record of 213-71-8 in six years at Hill-Murray High School and two years with the Junior Stars. He was assistant coach of the United States team at the World Junior championships in Leningrad in 1974 and head coach of the same team at Winnipeg in 1975. He also assisted with the U.S. National team in the 1976 World Championships at Katowice, Poland. Beaulieu set a national collegiate scoring record during his four years at St. Mary's College of Winona, Minn., where he scored 136 goals and 234 points in just 63 games. A native of Shawinigan, Que., Beaulieu has a degree in mathematics from St. Mary's and a master's degree in education from the College of St. Thomas. He and his wife, Kay, live in Woodbury. They are the parents of a boy and a girl.

Height: 6-2 — Weight: 185 lbs.
Age: 26 (May 24, 1951)
Born: Orebro, Sweden
Home: Karlstad, Sweden
Right Handed, Shoots Right

Although Kent-Erik Andersson led his team, Farjestads, in scoring in Swedish Division I play last season, it was his defensive showing in one particular game that impressed Minnesota's hockey staff even more. Playing against Canada in the world championships, Andersson drew the assignment of checking Phil Esposito and completely shut down the high-scoring New York Ranger. Andersson has the size and strength to handle a foe such as Esposito, but he also can do the job in the other end of the rink. His four goals and one assist in 10 world title games prove that point. Andersson has played six seasons in Sweden's equivalent of the major leagues and has performed in 35 games with his country's National team . . . Nickname is Kenta . . . Wears glasses off the ice . . . Kent-Erik and his wife, Lotta, are the parents of a daughter, who will turn two this season . . . Lotta is trained as a psychiatric nurse.

Born: Ottawa, Ontario

Fred Barrett's goals-per-season average during his six years in the National Hockey League is 1.33 goals each year. But the contributions of this one-time Toronto Marlboro are not measured in goals or points. Rather they are measured in pucks kept out of the net and opponents nailed to the boards or at the blue line. That's Barrett's game and his game is good enough so that he has been named two times in his six seasons here as winner of the Tom Dill Memorial Cup, awarded to the North Stars' defenseman voted most proficient by the media . . . His nickname is Swoop . . . Fred and his wife, Lois, both have attended college . . . When Coach Ted Harris played for Minnesota, his defensive partner was Barrett . . . He was the No. 2 selection of the North Stars in the 1970 Amateur Draft . . . Barrett is fourth in seniority among the North Stars, ranking behind Lou Nanne, Tom Reid and Dennis O'Brien . . . Fred and Lois are the parents of a son, 2.

NICK BEVERLEY

Height: 6-2 — Weight: 192 lbs.
Age: 30 (April 21, 1947)
Born: Toronto, Ontario
Home: Oshawa, Ontario
Right Handed, Shoots Right

Nick Beverley played only five-eighths of the North Stars' 1976-77 schedule yet members of the press, radio and television who cover the team on a regular basis voted him the Tom Dill Memorial Cup that each year is awarded to the team's best defenseman. The award was tribute, indeed, to the manner in which the tall, soft-spoken performer did his job after the North Stars acquired him and Bill Fairbairn last November from the Rangers in exchange for Bill Goldsworthy. Beverley is neither a high scorer — his 19 points last season were a personal high — nor a goon — he's never had as many as 50 penalty minutes in an NHL season. He simply is a perfectionist who goes about the job of playing defense in the most workmanlike way possible. People who know the game appreciate just what a good job he is doing out there . . . One of the team's more avid readers . . . Played junior hockey on the same Oshawa team as Bobby Orr . . . Missed the last few games and the playoffs last year because of a groin injury . . . Wife's name is Joanne.

PER-OLOV BRASAR (BRAW-sur)

Height: 5-8 — Weight: 172 lbs.
Age: 26 (September 30, 1950)
Born: Falun, Sweden
Home: Leksand, Sweden

"Every time I looked up he was coming over the boards. And every time he came over the boards it meant trouble for us." That's the way John Mariucci recalls the play of Per-Olov Brasar against Mariucci's team in last spring's world championships. Brasar was one of the key performers for Sweden in the world tournament, but that's hardly a new role for the hard-bitten winger who is ranked as his nation's best two-way player. He has played 96 games with the Swedish National team, including last fall's Canada Cup, and eight seasons for Leksands in Sweden's Division I. At Leksands Brasar was a teammate of Roland Eriksson, who helped persuade him to play in North America . . . The Vienna World Championships were the fourth for Brasar. He scored 11 points in 10 games in that tournament . . . Brasar is adept at all three forward positions . . . His nickname, Peo, comes from his first two initials . . . He and his wife, Pia, are the parents of a girl, 5.

You could have made a lot of money last fall by betting that Jerry Engele would be a regular on the North Stars' defense before the season was over. Most people felt that Engele would spend the full season in the role of a farmhand at New Haven in the American League. Well, Engele did play 52 games at New Haven, but he also played the last 31 games for the North Stars. "Jerome is a good example of a player who has learned his trade well in the minors," says Coach Ted Harris. "Those years at Saginaw, at Sun Coast, at New Haven were not wasted." Engele plays his position in a solid manner. He's your basic defensive defenseman. What's more, he adds a dimension of toughness in front of the Minnesota goal . . . Scored his first NHL goal last season . . . His dad played senior hockey in Saskatchewan . . . Engele was first signed by Minnesota as a free agent after playing for Saginaw of the IHL . . . Jerry and his wife, Norma Jean, are the parents of a son, 4.

Born: Storåtuna, Sweden

What a year for Roland Eriksson! The first Swede ever to play hockey for Minnesota scored more points (69) than any rookie in the team's history and led all NHL rookies in points and in assists (44). He and teammate Glen Sharpley finished third and fourth in Calder Trophy voting for the NHL's rookie of the year. His teammates were close to unanimous in voting him the WTCN-TV Trophy awarded to the North Stars' best first-year player. He won the season-long televised contest of hockey skills competed for by the North Stars. Then he capped off the season with a magnificent performance for Sweden in the World Tournament where he led his team to the silver medal, where he was chosen Sweden's most valuable forward and where he scored every goal in the Swedes' stunning 3-0 upset that knocked the Soviet Union out of first place . . . Had more shots (249) than any North Star . . . One of three players to lead the team with 10 power-play goals . . . Set a team mark of three power-play goals in one period . . . Scored four assists in his very first NHL game . . . A teammate of Per-Olov Brasar for Leksands of Sweden's Division I.

Height: 5-10; Weight: 195 lbs.
Age: 30 (Jan. 1, 1947)
Born: Brandon, Man.
Home: Brandon, Man.
Right Handed, Shoots Right

Bill Fairbairn never had played in any NHL uniform but that of the New York Rangers until last season when he was dealt to Minnesota with Nick Beverley in a trade that loomed large in the North Stars' march to the playoffs. As soon as Fairbairn whipped a couple of nagging injuries he brought with him from New York, he swiftly found a home in Minnesota green. Installed on a line with center Tim Young and left winger Ernie Hicke, he provided the experience and checking the line needed to make it click. That, of course, didn't come as a surprise. Checking has been Fairbairn's game ever since he made the climb from the minors to the NHL. Yes, he's scored 20 or more goals three times and 30 goals once and more than 60 points on three occasions. But solid, end to end checking is the cement that keeps his game together . . . Played 394 straight games for the Rangers before missing the first contest of last season . . . Excellent penalty killer . . . Originally signed to a New York contract by none other than Jack Gordon . . . Bill and his wife, Lloydene, are the parents of a girl, 5, and a boy, 2.

Height: 6-1 — Weight: 175 lbs.
Age: 22 (Feb. 11, 1955)
Born: Timmins, Ont.
Home: Timmins, Ont.
Right Handed; Shoots Left

After two seasons of seasoning Minnesota's second choice in the 1975 Amateur Draft appears ready to try his hand (and stick) at a full-time job in the National Hockey League. Paul Harrison turned in a fine season last year at New Haven of the American League, playing 55 games, plus two for the North Stars. The word on Harrison has been that all he needs is experience to go with his many talents. Those talents include extremely quick reflexes that give the young man from Timmins, Ont., hands and feet that are among the fastest in the business . . . Paul has played eight games for the North Stars over the last two seasons. He spent most of 1975-76 as a backup for Minnesota . . . His brother, Dave, plays hockey for the University of Windsor . . . Played junior hockey for Oshawa, Ont., of the Ontario Hockey Association . . . His goals-against average was the best in the AHL for the first two-thirds of last season . . . Harrison is not married . . . Chosen 40th overall in the 1975 draft, one place ahead of teammate Alex Pirus.

Height: 6-0 — Weight: 180 lbs.
Age: 22 (May 28, 1955)
Born: Cold Lake, Alberta
Home: Edina, Minnesota

The key to Doug Hicks' performance over the last couple seasons and to what is expected of him now and in the future is the basic soundness of his game on defense. Only 22 with three full seasons in the National Hockey League behind him, Hicks does everything well. A good skater, a good shot, adept at taking the man out of the play, he is one of the key people who patrol the blue line for the North Stars. Then, too, he is durable. Hicks has missed only one game in his three seasons at Minnesota and that one absence was not occasioned by an injury. There have been times when he played with ailments that might have sidelined other performers, but Hicks always managed to make the scene when the puck was dropped . . . His 83 shots last season were the most by a Minnesota defenseman . . . Drafted under-age (19) by the North Stars as their first pick in the 1974 Amateur Draft . . . Played junior hockey at Flin Flon, Man. . . . Scored 19 points and 14 assists last season, both personal highs . . . Not married.

Leadership comes in all sizes and packages and the North Stars inherited an economy size package of that quality the season before last when they gained Bill Hogaboam as part of a trade with Detroit. The man his friends call Hogie finished off a splendid 28-goal season in 1975-76, then became the sixth captain in the history of the Minnesota franchise last season. His leadership was no small part of the reason that the North Stars made the playoffs for the first time since 1972-73. Hogaboam is a strong skater and possesses a big shot. His talents as a center tend more toward goal scoring than playmaking, but he's also an effective winger . . . Tied for the team scoring title two seasons back . . . Played junior hockey in his home town, Swift Current, Sask . . . Has played in the National League with Atlanta, where he broke in, with Detroit and with Minnesota . . . Came to the North Stars in the trade that sent Dennis Hextall to the Red Wings . . . Bill and his wife, Dee, are the parents of a daughter, 2.

Born: Montreal, Quebec

Pierre Jarry was enroute to what loomed as his best season in the National Hockey League last winter until 21 games into the season when he collided with Toronto's Brian Glennie. The harmless-appearing collision tore loose the ligaments in his right knee and left Jarry on the sidelines for the balance of the season. Before that accident, he was scoring goals at a rate that would have given him more than 30 for the season. As soon as he was able, Jarry began therapy and exercises designed to repair the damage. By season's end he was skating, but did not make it back to action. Jarry was obtained from Detroit where he was languishing in the farm system and has scored 29 goals in the 80 games he has played for Minnesota over two seasons. What's more, he was voted the team's most popular player two seasons ago . . . Played with center Tim Young and right winger Dean Talafous before the injury . . . First round draft choice of the Rangers in 1969 . . . Played junior in Ottawa . . . One of two North Stars to score hat tricks in the last two years . . . Single.

JENSEN

Height: 6-2 — Weight: 190 lbs.
Age: 22 (April 14, 1955)
Born: Minneapolis, Minnesota
Home: Bloomington, Minnesota

No one would have blamed the North Stars for wondering what had happened to Steve Jensen through the first part of last season. The hero of the 1976 Winter Olympics, the Canada Cup star, the youngster who shone so brightly in 19 games late in the 1975-76 season had a mere three goals in his first 32 games. That was cause for concern, but the concern evaporated suddenly when Jensen went on a goalscoring tear that netted 19 goals in the balance of the season. "I think I was just over-hockeyed," he explains, "by playing more than 100 games in a year." Jensen has a world of pure speed and a shot that ranges from strong to deft. That made him a perfect selection as winger for center Roland Eriksson, whose passes broke loose the swift Jensen time and time again . . . Born, raised and learned his hockey in the Twin Cities . . . Played at Armstrong High School and Michigan Tech . . . Scored 52 goals in 64 games for the U.S. Olympic Team . . . Fourth-round choice of Minnesota in the 1975 Amateur Draft . . . Wife's name is Sandra . . . The Jensen's became parents of a daughter late last summer.

Mark the 1976-77 season down as the one in which Pete Lopresti became the main man in the North Stars' goal. Mark the 1977-78 season down as the one in which he proves his right to stay there. Lopresti played more than half the season for the North Stars including almost all of the stretch run that saw the team make the playoffs, then win second place in the Smythe Division. Lopresti started 16 of the last 18 games in a string that decided the fate of the North Stars. Goaltending partner Gary Smith showered praise on Lopresti calling him "the best youngster in the league." He has an excellent temperament, easy-going and relaxed and exceptionally quick reflexes . . . Lopresti's father, Sam, holds the NHL record of 80 saves in one game . . . "I think we have signed a player who can step right into the NHL and do the job on defense that this team needs." So said General Manager Jack Gordon when he announced that Brad Maxwell had agreed to join the North Stars. The credentials of Minnesota's No. 1 choice (seventh overall) in the 1977 Amateur Draft bear out Gordon's contention. The tall young man who makes his off-season home in Victoria, B.C. was the captain and hero of New Westminster's Memorial Cup-winning junior team. He scored the winning goal in the title game, but that was simply a typical goal for a performer who lists his strengths as "skating, shooting and offensive playmaking." When Brad was a youngster in Brandon, Man., he was taught to skate by Bill Fairbairn, then a junior player . . . An excellent golfer (five handicap) and tennis player . . . Height: 6-0; Weight: 183 lbs.
Age: 36 (June 2, 1941)
Born: Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.

Lou Nanne is the sole survivor of the Class of '67-68, the players who performed for the North Stars in the first year of the team's history. Players who have scored more goals, recorded more assists and amassed more penalty minutes have come and gone. But Nanne has been as solid as the Rock of Gibraltar in the North Stars' lineup. He's played 609 games, more than any North Star on the current roster and needs 108 games to set the all-time team record. The key to Nanne's longevity has been two-fold: his versatility and his ability to bounce back from injuries. He is equally skillful at defense or forward although he has played more defense of late. He can play right point on the power play and he is a skilled penalty killer. Over the years he has encountered injuries that would fell an ox, but each time has returned stronger than ever . . . Graduate of the University of Minnesota where he was an All-American and WCHA scoring champion . . . Naturalized U.S. citizen and captain of this nation's Olympic and National teams . . . Played youth hockey with Phil and Tony Esposito . . . Capable television broadcaster . . . Lou and his wife, Francine, are the parents of a girl, 14, twin boys, 13 and a boy, 10.

DENNIS O'BRIEN

Height: 6-0 — Weight: 200 lbs.
Age: 23 (June 10, 1949)
Born: Port Hope, Ontario
Home: Port Hope, Ontario
Right Handed, Shoots Left

You don't need to stretch the truth to claim that Dennis O'Brien had his best season as a North Star last winter. The roughneck from Port Hope, Ont., now No. 3 on the North Stars seniority list, led the club's defensemen with six goals and 18 assists for 24 points. He was the best puck carrier on the Minnesota blue line and by all odds the most dangerous rusher among Minnesota's defenders. O'Brien did not let the opposition stand around in Minnesota's end of the rink. Once again he led the North Stars in penalty minutes, as he has three out of the last four seasons . . . Only Lou Nanne and Tom Reid have played longer with Minnesota than O'Brien . . . His 187 penalty minutes two seasons ago is the team record . . . No. 2 selection in the 1969 Amateur Draft . . . Played junior hockey at St. Catharines, Ont. . . One of a family of nine, five brothers and three sisters . . . Once piled up 331 minutes in a Central League season . . . Obie and his wife, Janice, are the parents of a girl, 5.

Height: 6-1 — Weight: 205 lbs.
 Age: 22 (Jan. 12, 1955)
 Born: Toronto, Ontario
 Home: Toronto, Ontario

Alex Pirus had scored one lonesome goal in the first 28 North Stars' games and it looked as if the personable young man from Notre Dame was on his way to the minors for additional seasoning. But on the night of December 10 he suddenly broke out of the slump, scored twice in Atlanta and was on his way to becoming one of four Minnesota rookies to score 20 or more goals last year. Needless to say, Pirus' 19 goals over the last 52 games won him a regular spot in the lineup. The hardest hitting Minnesota forward, Pirus is a strong straight-ahead skater who is an excellent target for the long, accurate passes of center Roland Eriksson. His shot is heavy and one that often seems to handcuff goalkeepers . . . An honor student in Finance at Notre Dame where he carried a B-plus average . . . Chosen by the North Stars in the third round of the 1974 Amateur Draft . . . The second most accurate Minnesota shooter last season with a 15.6 percentage of success . . . Scored his 20th goal on the last day of the season . . . Single.

Some defensemen play their position with the idea of putting the puck in the other team's net. Others play with the idea in mind of keeping the puck out of their own goal. Tom Reid falls into the second, more classical role on defense. The Bomber hasn't scored a goal for a couple seasons and has just 16 goals in his NHL career — including the first successful penalty shot ever scored by a North Star. But Reid's value to the Minnesota franchise in which he ranks second in seniority is measured in blocked shots, in takeaways, in keeping the goal crease clean of opponents and, in general, playing his position by the book . . . Came to Minnesota as part of a trade with Chicago in 1969 . . . Missed 15 games last season because of a troublesome skin rash . . . Active worker in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes . . . Widely known as one of the busier practical jokers on the club . . . Will go over the 700 mark in NHL games played this season . . . Tom's wife is named Susan.

JIM ROBERTS

Height: 6-1 — Weight: 196 lbs.
 Age: 21 (June 8, 1956)
 Born: Toronto, Ontario
 Home: Proton Station, Ontario
 Left Handed, Shoots Left

Four first-year players from Minnesota scored 20 or more goals last season to set a National Hockey League record. Had Jim Roberts spent the entire season with the North Stars, the total might well have risen to five. But the team's No. 2 choice in the 1976 Amateur Draft missed the first 26 games of the season while gaining experience on Minnesota's New Haven farm in the American League. Roberts was outstanding at New Haven, joined the North Stars early in December and went on to score 11 goals in 53 games, more than half of them in the last 20 games. He's strong, uses his size to advantage and gets off his shot with speed and accuracy — his 15.1 shooting percentage was fourth best on the team. Roberts also ranks as one of the more dependable defensive players on the roster . . . Played junior hockey in Ottawa like a good many other North Stars . . . No relation to the player of the same name who performed for Montreal last year . . . Roberts is not married.

SHARPLEY

Height: 6-0 — Weight: 190 lbs.
Age: 21 (September 6, 1956)
Born: Toronto, Ontario
Home: Apple Valley, Minnesota
Left Handed. Shoots Right

Glen Sharpley did everything last season a National Hockey League team could ask of its No. 1 choice in the Amateur Draft. He scored 57 points to finish third among all NHL rookies. He scored 25 goals to tie for the team rookie lead. He finished fourth in voting for the Calder Trophy. He checked the other team's No. 1 center game after game. He killed penalties. He didn't sell hamburgers during intermissions, but that's about all the action he missed. To say that the North Stars were pleased with 1976's No. 1 pick is putting it mildly. Sharpley believes in the work ethic. He goes full speed in both ends of the rink. That leads to the opportunities that in turn lead to goals. "Couldn't be happier," says Chief Scout Ted O'Connor and that sums it up for the organization . . . Eighty-eight per cent of his goals were classed as important, best on the team . . . Played junior hockey for Hull, Que. . . . Third player drafted overall in 1976 . . . Six game winning goals led the team . . . Sharpley is not married.

Dean Talafous' progress in the National Hockey League has shown a steady upward curve during the youngster's three seasons in the NHL — nine goals in his first year, 18 in his second, 22 in his third. Coach Ted Harris will be a happy man if Talafous continues that pattern and increases his total this year to 25 or more. But the value of the tall forward who played his high school hockey at nearby Hastings is not limited to goalscoring. No North Star works harder in the corners and behind the net than Talafous. His strength and long reach give him advantages in these areas, but it is his determination that plays the largest role . . . Led the University of Wisconsin to its first NCAA championship in 1973 when he scored the title-winning goal . . . Helpful in aiding Roland Eriksson and this year's newest recruits from Sweden to adjust to life in North America . . . First U.S. player taken in the 1973 Amateur Draft, he was chosen by Atlanta which later traded him to Minnesota . . . Played his first game at the Met as a high school senior . . . Dean and his wife, Kay, both attended Hastings High School.

Give Pierre Jarry three stars for his skill in prophecy. Two games into last season he said: "Tim Young is going to score around 100 points." Not far from the mark. Young ended the year with 95 points and 66 assists, the most ever scored by a North Star. The 95 points were the fifth most scored by any player in the NHL, more than people such as Bobby Clarke, Phil Esposito, Darryl Sittler and Tom Lysiak. They were the most scored by any second-year player last year and the second-most ever scored in a sophomore season. Young's skills were appreciated the most by his teammates, who voted him the team's most valuable player. All this makes the deal that brought Young, a 1975 first-round draft choice by Los Angeles, to the North Stars in exchange for a 1976 pick, perhaps the wisest in the team's history. Young's strongest suit is playmaking, but 47 goals in two seasons show that he knows where the net is located . . . Represented Minnesota in the All-Star Game . . . Played junior hockey in Ottawa where he scored 163 points in his last season . . . Unmarried.

Tom Younghans, a young man with a penchant for scoring shorthanded goals, surprised nearly everyone but himself last winter when he won a spot in the Minnesota lineup his first year out of the University of Minnesota. Younghans, to state it simply, worked his way on the team. He worked harder than anyone at training camp and didn't let up until the final buzzer of the North Stars' last Stanley Cup playoff games. "No question that work made the difference with Tom," says Coach Ted Harris. "There's always a place in hockey for the player who gives all he can." A talented penalty killer in college, Younghans continued in that role in professional hockey where he led the North Stars with three goals while the team was shorthanded. That, too, wasn't new. He had scored four in his senior year at UM . . . Played two years at St. Mary's of Winona, Minn., before transferring to Minnesota . . . One of his nicknames is Wolfman . . . Has played for the U.S. in the last two World Championships . . . Attended St. Agnes High School in St. Paul . . . Can play all three forward positions. Single.

TELEVISION AND RADIO TEAMS

Once more followers of the North Stars can tune their television sets to Channel 11 and turn their radio dials to 830 when they want to watch or listen to Minnesota's National Hockey League team in action.

This is the 11th season in succession that WTCN-TV and WCCO-Radio have carried the North Stars' games. The association covers the entire history of the NHL team.

Broadcaster Al Shaver's play-by-play tenure on WCCO-Radio also spans the history of the team as he, too, enters his 11th season in the radio booth. Steve Cannon returns as WCCO color commentator.

WTCN-TV will air 25 North Stars' contests, 22 away and three from Met Center. The team of Joe Boyle and Roger Buxton is back again to provide play by play and color commentary.
